The elegant shape of a Serving Board by De JONG & Co. is timeless. The handles are carefully hand-carved for a comfortable grip and include a leather bootlace hanging loop. The hand-tooled half-moon cutout serves as a second grip and assists in funneling provisions. Thoroughly seasoned and polished with our own recipe of natural oils and waxes giving it a luxurious and soft feel. A De JONG & Co. Serving Board is a pleasure to use as well as a handsome kitchen adornment. Available in natural walnut with our food safe, hand-rubbed oil & wax finish.
